

I 'moustache' ask you some questions

Imagine that you are a journalist at the one of the daily Coronavirus briefings given by First Minister Nicola Sturgeon.

Write down THREE relevant, thought provoking questions that you would like to ask the FM at the moment. In the space underneath, write down the response you think she might give to that question.

Email me a photo of your questions, or include them in the text of the email or as an attachment, and I will Tweet the three best questions to the FM next week. Get your thinking caps on!!
