<http://learning.poppyscotland.org.uk/veday75/>

The 75th anniversary of the end of WW2 in Europe will be remembered on 8th May 2020. VE Day 1945 was a huge historical event bringing to an end 6 years of fighting in Europe and the death of millions of soldiers. Above is a link to Poppy Scotland's resources to help you find out more.

L/I: to investigate VE Day in 1945. To learn about the role of women in the WW2. To read about the experiences of children in WW2.

Tasks:

1. Read through the power points on WW2 and VE Day to get an overall view.
2. Read the section - A Scottish child's view of the war and The Kindertransport.
3. Listen to Churchill's 3pm speech on VE Day.
4. Read the section on Women's contribution to WW2.
5. Design a poster which can be put on Twitter to highlight Leith Academy's virtual 75th VE Day celebration. There will be a prize for the best poster! (entries to be in by Wednesday 6th May)
6. If you decide to hold a VE Day tea party send us a photo of your baking and decorations.
