

The Biscuit Quiz

- Which famous Russian politician visited Ford's Bakery in Preston as part of a trade delegation where during the visit he stuffed his pockets with as many P...P....P...Pick Up a Penguin biscuits as he could?

Who was he?

Valdamir Putin

Boris Yeltin

Mikhail Gorbachev

- How many Tunnock's Caramel Wafer Biscuits are made and sold each week.

- 6,000,000
- 7,000,500
- 5,000,000

- One of the best remembered advertising songs for biscuits went as follows:

Lee's, Lee's, more if you please..... What was it advertising?

Macaroon Bars

Snowballs

Iced Biscuits

- What was the original name of the KitKat?

- Chocolate Crisp
- Chocolate Finger
- Chocolate Thins

- The Jamie Dodger was named after Roger The Dodger, a comic book character in the Beano. What was Roger dodging?

The Police

His Homework

His Dad

