

What is happening? Create a 6 boxed storyboard to show the key scenes or just create a poster that shows the overall scene.

Are there words which are interesting or odd in some way? Quote them on your storyboard or poster.

If you can identify any literary techniques the poet has used create a separate page to your storyboard or poster and quote the word or phrase and label the technique.

If you have identified and labelled the technique, try to explain the effect it has on you.
